Halmstad, 2 June 2021

Daniel Johansson, CEO, resigns from Arise

Daniel Johansson has notified the board of directors of his intention to resign as CEO of Arise AB (publ.) ("Arise"). He will remain available to the company for six months. Daniel Johansson has been CEO of Arise since January 2016. The process of recruiting a successor will begin immediately to find a CEO that can lead the company on its continued growth journey. Under Daniel's leadership Arise has had a great development. Daniel has contributed significantly in taking the company to its current strong position.

Joachim Gahm, Chairman of the Board, Arise AB:

"Daniel has during his more than five years successfully developed the company, both financially and commercially. The company's development pipeline has been expanded and business activities have intensified. I want to thank Daniel for his decisive efforts in changing the course of the company's development. Thanks to Daniel we have taken the company to a new level".

Daniel Johansson, CEO, Arise AB:

"I am very pleased with what we as a team have accomplished during my time as CEO. It has been a privilege to lead and develop the business. The company's personnel are its greatest asset and I want to express my gratitude for their contribution. Arise is now well positioned to grow in line with the growth plan towards 2025. Together we have taken the company to a leading position within renewable energy".
