> 10,000 MW* by the end of 2025.

Project sales or FID

> 400 MW* in total during 2024-2025.

> 500 MW* per year, on average, during 2026-2028.

EBITDA margin within Production

> 60%

Equity ratio

> 30%

Dividend

> 20% of net profit attributable to Arise's shareholders.

* Including part-owned projects

"This illustrates our ambitious and profitable growth targets for the coming years. We are well-positioned to deliver on these, primarily due to our successful diversification regarding geography and technology which we start to see results from already. The energy market is characterized by the ongoing green transition and security of supply and will probably be so for decades ahead. We are part of the solution, and we are confident in our ability to create attractive shareholder value in the coming years", says Arise's CEO, Per-Erik Eriksson.
